DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on August 06, 2010 has been entered.

2. Claims 1, 2, 4-14, and 16-22 are examined on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claim 1, 2, 4-14, and 16-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. NEW MATTER.
5. Claim 1, last 2 lines, recite “focused by a user” which has not support in the instant specification. It is noted that specification discloses the act of selecting menus as directed to the respective window. However, there is not support for the new limitation of “focused by a user.” The same issue is present claims 12 and 20.

6. Claims 1, 2, 4-14, and 16-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

ENABLEMENT.

7. Claim 1, last 2 lines, recite “focused by a user” which has not support in the instant specification; therefore, one of ordinary skill in the art would not be able to practice the claimed as claimed. It is noted that specification discloses the act of selecting menus as directed to the respective window which does not commiserate in scope with the new limitation of “focused by a user.” The same issue is present claims 12 and 20.
8. It is advised that an amendment of “when either the search window or the edit window is respectively selected by a user” in place of the instant limitation of “when the search window and the edit window are focused by a user” would place the application in condition for allowance.
